Die-hard supporter of Accra Great Olympics and Black Stars chief drummer, Joseph Langabel has reaffirmed that black magic 'juju' in football is real and even Portuguese superstar, Cristiano Ronaldo uses it.

Langabel who was speaking on UTV in an interview emphatically said that the issue of 'juju' or 'ways and means' of winning football matches has taken a centre stage in our local football and it is creating a lot of problems in the minds of many football loving fans in Ghana.

According to him, even though the practice is "worrying", footballers cannot do without 'juju' in their matches.

However, he astonishingly revealed that former Black Stars goalkeeper, Richard Kingson affirmed that he and others who sought spiritual backing during their playing days.

“Do you remember Olele? Do you remember how skillful he was during his playing time; he was using spirits in the post. Even Cristiano Ronaldo use juju,” he added.

He also recalled that, in the late 70's, players of Glorious Accra Hearts Of Oak failed to score a goal against their Guinean counterparts Hafria in an Africa Cup all because a spiritualist had told them and player who put the ball at the back of their opponents net will die.
